

WE SAY...

Our opinions about everything under the sun....

First Day of mine at MITSOG, was like a mountain full of fog. I met Seshan sir, faculty and friends, they made it possible for me to see the seashore's end. I am fortunate to be here, and I would admire my decision forever.

-Alok Jain

A peaceful life does not come from wealth or prosperity alone. There is no alternative for knowledge and good friends and here in MITSOG, I was able to get both.

-Sankalp Singhai

"Politics without principles is a sin" is one of the fundamental principles of Gandhiji. After joining MITSOG, I feel that I am at the right place. My dream to serve mother nation is on its way to come true.

-D. Shrinivas Reddy

The meeting with the father of Indian electoral system, Shri T N Seshan made me realize that there is a whole new world for me to learn about and experience

-Delhi Vasanth

Joining MITSOG was like a dream come true. I hope I can make the best use of this course and polish myself to become a better leader and a better citizen.

-Sumit Kumar Singh

Now is a time to learn, to experiment, to make mistakes and to learn from those mistakes. In these first few days I have gone through so many new experiences and challenges which have not only opened new horizons for me academically but also personally.

-Manas Deka

MIT is a temple of knowledge where I can get a lot of knowledge which will make me a self-sufficient person so that I can face any situation of life and come out as a winner..

-Vikrant Bhola

Optimism for a bright future of our country, fill in us a sublime thought, And a zeal to make politics be cleaned of evils; For which the SOG has given us an opportunity to act upon

-Anamika Govil

I was very moved from the very moment I stepped into MIT. When I walked into the corridors and classes, I felt I was at the right place. I know I need to learn a lot and with much qualified faculties and classmates. I am sure I am on the right path.
